

Dennis Lewis

Dennis Lewis was elected to the Rockwall City Council in 2012 and currently serves as Mayor Pro Tem. He and his wife, Clarissa, have been married for thirty-seven years and along with their three children, Tiffany, Brett and Elise, moved to Rockwall in 1993. All three children are Rockwall High School graduates as is their son-in-law Ryan. They have three grandchildren, Dylan, Taryn and Lauryn. Dennis and Clarissa are active members of Lakepointe Church where Dennis helps teach a Life Group class. Prior to being elected to the City Council, Dennis served on the Rockwall Planning and Zoning Commission. He is a former coach in the Rockwall Baseball Association and coached a Rockwall based select baseball team.

Dennis is the Past President and a past Board Member of the American Subcontractors Association (ASA) – North Texas Chapter, is a former board member of ASA – Texas and is active in and a former board member of the Texas Construction Association. He currently serves as a member of the ASA – National Organization’s Task Force on Ethics in Construction. Dennis is a graduate of Texas A&M University. He is Vice-President of Potter Concrete, Ltd headquartered in Irving, Texas.